Professional Summary

Chandrashekharghosh | B.Sc. Computer Science | Govt. Holkar Science College, Indore
I am a dedicated and passionate developer with a strong foundation in front-end and full-stack development. I thrive on applying my knowledge to real-world challenges and am eager to gain hands-on experience through an opportunity where I can contribute to live projects and collaborate with a dynamic team. My expertise includes developing and optimizing web applications, integrating APIs, and working with both SQL and NoSQL databases. I am highly adaptable and excited to explore AI-driven applications and cloud-based solutions.
